

SOLITAIRE

A game for one player

Object of the game

To remove all but one playing piece from the board and if possible to leave the last playing piece in the center space.

Preparation

Place a playing piece on all board space in the center spaces except the center one.

How to play

Each playing piece may jump over one next to it onto an empty space beyond. The playing piece that has been jumped over is then removed from the board. Playing pieces may jump horizontally or vertically but never diagonally.